ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

On account of the high cost of mate rial, Brandon blacksmiths have advanced the price of horseshoeing.

Richard Sumner, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner of Reads-boro, narrowly escaped death a few days ago when he was attacked by a dog with which he had been playing and bitten in the face. When the boy was found, he was unconscious, with his face torn and FRESH EGGS ARE chewed. Several stitches had to be taken.

Mrs. Willard E. Bingham, 77 years old May 6, observed the event in Newfane at the home of her son, L. W. Bingham, for whom she keeps house and takes care of her Dairy Butter Is 30@31c, and bens and chickens. Each year she spins and knits up about 20 pounds of wool rolls, which means 25 to 30 pounds of wool in the fleece. Her sons, the Bingham brothers, have the only carding mill in that part of the county.

Ernest M. Williams, a native of Jamaica, died recently in Orange, Mass., his emains being brought back to. Vermont for interment. Mr. Williams was a conductor on the street railway at the time of his death and one of the floral pieces was in the form of an electric car on a track, which was about five feet long and composed of carnations, roses, lilies, sweet alyssum and daffodils. It was presented by the Northern Massachusetts Street Railway company.

Disaster followed in the wake of a joy ride in Rutland Friday night, when a Ford automobile delivery truck owned by George E. L. Badlam, and taken from its garage by an employe of the Badlam store without permission, was burned when making a return trip from Pitts- W. A. Ricker's market for the week endford. The car was insured against everything except fire. A fine of $300 may be imposed for the running of a car without the consent of the owner.

A special service in observance of the 10th anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. A. H. Pratt was held in the Congrebational church at Bellows Falls Sunday evening. Rev. Dr. Pratt has received a unanimous call from the Congregational church in Greenfield, Mass., and has the invitation under consideration. The anniversary sermon was prefaced by Rev. Asher Anderson, D. D., of Fitchburg, Mass., who preached the installation sermon for Rev. Dr. Pratt May 24, 1906.
